We find this miserable paragraph going the rounds of the papers without any acthrowledged parentage—its last appearance being in the Chicago Journal. It is mean and false in every particular. In the first and false in every particular. In the first place "Washington letters" do not say any thing. The story had its origin in of Richardson's speeches. No letter iter has been so hase as to invent or re-stained from Brigadler General Wads-orth, military governor of the District of ses, several thousads of whose carcasses have been depos-fed outside of Washington and Georgedischarge of the property of the men to undertake either except at a wages. Gen. Wadsworth says that a Government except from 18 to 45 cents of day per man, by employing the "contra-ands." They not only support themetives and all their women and children, but they by up something for a rainy day. If anyone hesitates to believe this statement, he can have his doubts solved at once by applying to Gen. Wadsworth.

But, my friends, I am speaking longer than I intended. I will tree-pass to longer apon your kindness, but will only renew to you my profound and bearfield acknowledgments for this distinguished mark of your friendslip, and beg you to believe that I will cherish the remembrance of this viait as one of the most pleasing incidents of my life.

have gained experience in that boundless and fafformless philosophy, the morde of an army, without which an army is worth nothing in the hour of battle. Our war-worn army here in the field less many a mostly heast in the field less many a mostly heast in the ranks, throbbing betwirt sense of duty to his country and those dear cases at home, who feels it flty befitting his worth and dignity as the head of a family and a man of uscfalces in society, to stand duly shoulder to shoulder with irresponsible youths, and outraging justice to his family by constantly imperiting himself for thirteen dollars a month, who would be encouraged by promotion to sergerantry and increase of pay by four or seven dollars per month. Many braver and useful sergeants here have well served their shoulders and being the backbone of the ranks in the bloody hour. Many a gallant captain pants for more scope,—for a larger command than a company. Many a studious and dignified colonel has comprehensively surveyed the field where he might have soled as general.

In war experience is the gen. The crisis of the country is too momentations and deliuse to hazard this 300,000 of men, and to gratify the ambittion of a horde of obscure, small capitalists of recruiters claiming the boon of rank upon trial. That would have done to raise an army when we thought way were going to play war, and were lavish of men and RECRUITING IN CHICAGO. Payment of the County Bounties.

The number of recruits sworn in on Satu day was considerably larger than for the two-previous days. In fact, there seems to be a perfect manis for enlisting, and a noble rivalry exists among the various companies in their race for the honor of filling up first. The re-cruits are from the very bone and sine wof the city their numbers are recented by the stream cruits are from the very bone and sines of the city, their numbers sugmented by the sturdy farmers from the country. Every mall brings in the most cheering assurances, and indicates that the country as well as the city is all aglo with the fires of patriotism. We have no heattation in saying that fillinois will turn out an army that in quantity and quality will carry off the palm from the other States. This is as it should be. Keep the ball rolling. Carry encouragement to our brave boys now in the encouragement to our brave boys now in the field, and be with them to share in their tri-imphs. They have nobly sustained the name and fame of Illinois. Our new regiments, a tower of strength, will march to still more aboltom triumphs and firstly account in the pro-glorious triumphs and fresher conquests.

Another Bridge Wanted.

The long trains of vehicles that have been toatling each other at Clark street bridge furing the last week, and the occasi disturbances in that vicinity, suggest the necasioned by throwing the greater part of the crossing from the south to the north side of the river upon this bridge. Wells street saturday, "Saturday, " bridge, the trouble and inconvenience would be sorrely feit by the community. Residents of the North Side complain, and it seems to us not without cause, that they are subject to all the inconvenience arising from horse railways in the streets, on their side of the river, with but very little benefit, for the reason that the cars are not permitted to cross the bridges—as from the West Side. Why not make the necessary provision for that portion of the finnds provided by the city two years ago—at once and have the bridge built as soon as possible. The pressure upon all the bridges is daily increasing, and our friends upon the North Side have claims that should not be entirely disregarded.

A Rief Among Laborers.

On Ssturday, a not occurred upon Twelfth street, which at one time threstened most across consequences, but finally, by the prompt action of the police, was quested before much damage was done. The Liverpool steamer, with three days' later news was telegraphed this morning—reporting wheat and flour dull and easier; corn declined accord per quarter. This news caused a depression in the general tinued downward tendency in gold had also some effect in rendering the markets easier. The Flour market deslined 56,200° pt., with light sales at $4.356,4 by for spring extras, and $5.162.540 for winter extras. The demand by shippers was unnually light. Wheat opened firm, but as soon as the steamer's news was received, it declined 2625/c on spring grades, and 1625c on winter—with sales of No. 1 Red at $100 01.01; No. 2 White, $1.02; Amber lows, 95% 296c; No. 1 Spring, at 94%99c; and No. 2 Spring, at 57%86c. [At the close the market was quiet, with sales of No. 1 Spring at 94% 3 Cc.

The Corn market suffered a decline of Me W beakel—with light sales at 33t for filver Mixed aftont; 200,200 for Rejected aftont; 30t for White in store; 300,4031 kg for Mixed in store; and 35% @ 30t for Rejected in store. The decline in treights rendered the market at the close firmer, and it rallied, closing at 30t for ten day receipts of Mixed in store.

The Crops and Markets in Europe.
The Mark Land Express of the list ult., reports the weather for the week unsettled, with some heavy storms. It was becoming more and more confirmed that the later qualities of wheat would be the main stay this season, that the accountation the northern parts of the country were more favorable than from the southern, and that, on the key of the gathering would be unequal. The the whole, the gathering would be unequal. The effects of this was to be seen in the reduction of the whole, the gathering would be unequal. The effects of this was to be seen in the reduction of the stocks of foreign grain, and should the crops not be dry when harvested, it was anticipated that the expected decline in the market would be eliber lessened or prevented.

Heavy raims had prevailed in Northern Europe, and prices had advanced, especially for rye. In lialy the samples of new wheat were light and decicient.

The low state of the river Nile had prevented arrivals at Alexandria, and prices there were rising. Paris dates of the 50th report the markets dull, with a downward tendency. Still, there was great anxiety manifested regarding the crops. The weather, at the close of the week, had been more favorable, and this accounts for the dullness in the markets.
